Panel 1 - Raph, while speeding toward the oncoming Fishface, reaches down and plucks the floating Foot Soldier from the water. The Foot Soldier looks appropriately shocked.

Panel 2 - Raphael, speeding up and around, throws the Foot Soldier. The Foot Soldier comically plasters himself to Fishface.

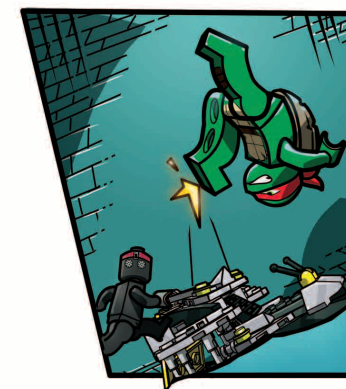

Panel 3 - Fishface, now unable to see with the Foot Soldier covering him, spirals around the circumference of the sewer tunnel and crashes. Pieces fly off of the jetski.

Panel 4 - Raph starts to build something from the bricks, Fishface is behind him, out cold. The Foot Soldier is trying to wake him up by splashing water on his face.

Panel 5 - When Fishface wakes up, he throws a LEGO brick at Raph, who is still busy constructing something out of the scattered and floating bricks.

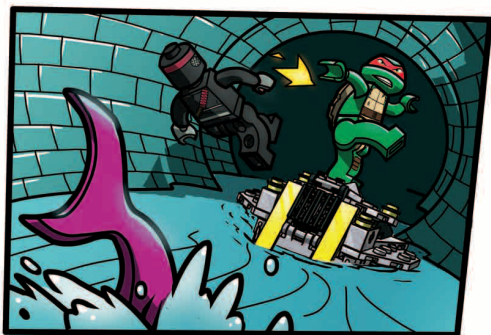

Panel 6 - Raph flips over the thrown piece. Mid-flip, upside-down, he redirects the projectile, clicking it into place on top of his creation (which is not entirely visible, as it is somewhat submerged)
